Purpose

Indigo needed to improve its customers' experience by installing a background music system that's great quality, easy to control and discreet.

Challenge

Indigo has high and open ceilings, so reverberation needed to be kept minimal while producing high-quality audio.

Over 20 speakers were installed effectively throughout the entire store. The speakers were also integrated with the current music player and amplifiers, making control over the speakers extremely convenient.

Feedback

The client was extremely satisfied with the exceptional sound quality and great savings.
